Tuesday, Four of Bryson Family

Victims of Auto-Truck Crash

On Tuesday morning of this week, a collision of an automobile and truck occurred on the highway eight miles this side of Graham from which three deaths have resulted. In the wreck were Mrs. Tom Chafin, 45, of Bryson, and her three children, Doris, age 11, Bonnie Sue, age 8, and Bobbie Stewart, age 4; Miss Viola Lester, age 23, of Jacksboro, and W. R. Weinert, of Haskell County.

Little Bonnie Sue Chafin died Tuesday afternoon; Mrs. Chafin died Wednesday morning at 7:00, and Miss Lester died at 10:40 the same morning.

Doris Chafin was badly cut and bruised and perhaps injured internally, but attendants said she may recover. Bobbie Stewart Chafin suffered only bruises and a cut on the head and his condition is not considered serious. Mr. Weinert suffered broken bones in the region of his right shoulder and side, and a bad injury to his head and right hand.

All the injured were rushed to the Graham hospital, being taken by passing motorists.

The accident occurred when the car driven by Mrs. Chafin, carrying Miss Lester and Mrs. Chafin's three children, met a cattle truck driven by Mr. Weinert. They met on a hill where a second truck was parked beside the road.

Witnesses declared that the movements of Mrs. Chafin's car and Mr. Weinert's truck indicated that each driver tried to pass the other and each time one turned the other turned in the same direction.

Miss Viola Lester was the daughter of Mr. Burley Lester, living north of Jacksboro, and a sister of Darrell Lester, former football star on the T. C. U. team. Funeral services for her will be held this afternoon at Round Mountain where burial will take place.

Mrs. Chafin has been living at Bryson since 1929, having come there with her husband who is connected with oil interests.

Mrs. Chafin and little daughter will be buried this afternoon at Bryson.

Restoration of Fort Richardson

Back in July, 1935, application was made to the Texas Centennial Commission of Control that old Fort Richardson here in the Jacksboro city limits be included in its plans for restoring points of historical interest as a part of the Texas Centennial being celebrated this year. The State Centennial Board appointed the Jack County Centennial Advisory Committee consisting of Lewis Johnson as chairman, Mrs. E. C. Richards and E. L. Douglass of Jacksboro, and G. F. Wimberly of Perrin, with later additions of Mayor W. H. Breech, Dr. C. E. Putnam, president of the Jacksboro Chamber of Commerce, and E. C. Richards and Kirk Stewart of the Lions Club. Under its sponsorship and aided and assisted by representatives of the Jack County Commissioners' Court, and some ten or twelve other civic clubs and local organizations, delegations were sent to various meetings at Austin and elsewhere during all of the past months in the interest of this projected restoration. Many difficulties were met and great rolls of governmental red tape had to be unwound before the consummation has been assured. Even an auto trip was made by Judge John P. Simpson, Kyle Spiller and E. C. Richards back to Alabama to negotiate with the Foscoe Estate for the purchase of the site.

Back in the fall months, the State Committee allocated $12,500 for the purchase of the site and for the work of restoration. Legal condemnation proceedings were had in the County Court of this county under the law permitting condemnation of privately owned property for public park purposes, by which title thereto was vested in the City of Jacksboro on payment of the $4,000.00 appraisal. At that time questions of jurisdiction and control of the Centennial funds arose between the State and the Federal Board as to all of such restoration projects for Texas. Judge Simpson, acting as advisor to the local committee, was given the task of directing the program during the past several months. He has been mitted, was given the task of directing the program during the past several months. He has been untiring in his efforts and consummate in his skill in this matter. He made many trips to Austin, Dallas and Fort Worth and to him is due much credit for the success which is now in prospect. Valuable assistance was rendered Judge Simpson and the local committee by Jack County's two members of the Legislature, Senator Grady Woodruff of Decatur and Representative R. C. Lanning of Jacksboro. Only last week, the first installment namely that for the $4,000.00 for payment of the court's condemnation judgment was received, and the title to the land was vested in the city.

Early in the proceedings, another allotment of $18,000.00 additional was made out of the WPA funds through Dean Geo. L. Dickey's committee at Fort Worth for this district. In as much as WPA funds and labor have been varying badly from allotments all over the state, the amount to be realized out of this $18,000.00 is uncertain and its use restricted.

Terrill Isbell was recommended by the local committee as engineer and supervisor, and his employment was recently announced by the State Committee at Austin. Working under direction of the local advisory committee, Isbell is now making a survey of the property and compiling estimates of the cost of preserving and restoring the old buildings on the fort site. When such reports have been made and approved at Austin, bids will be sought and actual work be started by the contractors with the hopes that the property can be in good shape during the Centennial months. After that the fort site of some 40 odd acres will be owned and controlled by the City of Jacksboro and be locally managed and operated as a public park. Plans are being discussed looking to the permanent use of the fort

J. W. (Bud) Rains

The subject of this sketch was born August 9th, 1864, in Rains County, Texas; came to Jack County and settled west of Jacksboro. He was married to Miss Dainie Tinney Dec. 24th, 1886. To this union were born four children, two boys and two girls, the two boys having preceded their parents in death, in infancy.

Mr. Rains professed faith in Christ in 1930 and united with the Methodist Church at Jacksboro, and remained a member of that organization until his death, which came Dec. 14th, 1936, at his home three miles west of Jacksboro where he had lived for the past forty-one years.

He was engaged in the cattle business practically all his life, being one of the most prominent cattle men in this section of the country.

Mr. Rains was an inspiration to many young men, speaking words of encouragement and thus helping them along life's way.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Dania Rains, two daughters, Mrs. Fred Boruff and Mrs. Beulah Ferguson of Jacksboro; three grandsons, Rains and Robert Boruff and L. Lenor Ferguson; one sister, Mrs. Cordie Enyart of Pecos, Texas, and a host of other relatives and friends.

He has gone on and we were left behind. We can not understand, we can only stand by the mound in the cemetery and long for the touch of the vanished hand that can never come back to us; but we can go to him. Oh, blessed thought!

Funeral services were conducted at the Thompson Funeral Home by the pastor of the Methodist Church at Jacksboro, and Willie Oliver of Chico, the latter being an old-time friend of the family. Interment took place in Oakwood cemetery.

Those attending the funeral from elsewhere were Pat Boruff and wife, Mrs. Neetie M. Boruff, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Mann, all of Wichita Falls; E. L. Brandenburg, Decatur; Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Harbert, Mrs. Wallace Harbert, Mrs. Ben Qualls, all of Benjamin; Joe Tinney of Haskell; T. J. Tinney and family of Alvord; G. H. Tinney of Bowie.

Fire Destroys Pioneer Residence.

In the fall of 1898 Mr. W. A. Shown and Mr. Stewart Castleberry, partners in all business transactions, built two homes in the southwestern part of Jacksboro, within the city limits. The homes were built by one plan and the same design. Their families were then moved here from Wise County. For thirty-eight years this residence has sheltered numbers of families, until Friday, Christmas morning, after Santa Claus had made his annual visit to the home on the south, now known as the Bud Sewell home, a cloud of gray dusty smoke was noticed issuing out from the northwestern corner of the attic. The fire alarm was given and faithful firemen, friends and neighbors went into the burning building and saved practically everything except a china closet of dishes, two bedsteads and a few other items of less importance.

Mrs. Sewell who had been ill for some time was removed from the home on a mattress and was taken to the home of her brother, J. H. Shown of this city, for the present time. As yet there is no definite plan made by the family.

We, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Sewell, and daughters, Mrs. R. D. Whitaker and Mrs. L. S. Yates, wish to thank each fireman and friend for the splendid help in removing the contents of the home. We realize it was impossible under the present water force equipment to save our home. We want to say again that we not only thank the firemen but our friends and neighbors who worked so diligently in saving our household goods and may God bless each and everyone of you.
